LOOKING AHEAD ☺
Wednesday, November 23 is a half day for students.

Fremont High School has once again adopted a couple of families this year for Christmas. If you are able and interested in helping make someone's Christmas a little brighter, please stop by the office and pick an ornament off the giving tree. If you take an ornament, please purchase the gift that is requested on the ornament and return it, along with the gift unwrapped to the office by Friday, December 16. Gifts will be delivered to the families before Christmas. Thank you

Language Arts Team – We will be practicing on Friday, November 18 for Poetry. If you want to submit poetry for the team, you need to attend at least one of the poetry work sessions. Bring at least one poem you have been working on this year.

LAST YEAR'S YEARBOOK : The yearbook staff will be selling extra copies of last year's yearbook . The cost is $55. See Mrs. Bahorski to purchase one.
