Leadership Reports

Brad Reyburn, Superintendent:

Brad shared that he is working on leadership training for his admin team. They will be doing strength training the first week of August when they return. He is also developing a Podcast for the district. He will interview staff from around the district and will also do a spotlight on a local business during each session. Brad shared about all the work being done around the district this summer: New sidewalks, paving and patchwork of the asphalt at all buildings, new flag pole at the athletic field along with concrete pads to develop a picnic table area around the concessions just to name a few things. He has a meeting with Kingscott to look at the first big sinking fund project... Pathfinder's mechanical upgrade.

Julie Reams, Director of Finance:

Julie shared the board financial report and that it is still a work in progress. She is still moving numbers around and wrapping up end of the year accounts. There is still lots of concern around the state budget and state funding and the state has not shared any information as of yet.
