Interview of Dan Mesyar – Superintendent Candidate

Board Communications/Discussion

Superintendent search – Matt led the Board in a poll regarding who they felt was the best candidate for the Board, Administration, Staff, Students and Community....which one will keep us moving forward. There was discussion from each Board member on the traits of each candidate and what each member felt were strengths/weaknesses of each candidate. The Board felt that both candidates were strong, but that one would be the best fit for our district with his experience.
