SENIORS: Needing money for college? Millions of dollars of scholarships are available and waiting for applicants with hundreds of new scholarship added weekly. Check out goingmerry.com. Goingmerry.com is one app for all your scholarships and it is absolutely free. Information flyers are available in the Counseling Office.

The Gerber Foundation is offering scholarships for post-secondary education to high school seniors. Scholarship applications may be submitted through https://gerberfoundation.smartsimple.com. Deadline for application is February 28th. Information regarding the scholarships can be found on the Gerber Foundation website at www.gerberfoundation.org.

Community Service Opportunities:

The Pathfinder Family Night committee is looking for high school students to help volunteer at our Family Night. It is November 7th from 5pm-7pm. Interested students may contact Tricia Sparks at tsparks@fremont.net. This is a fun way to get community service hours!

THE NEST: Is looking for high school volunteers for a variety of tasks. Any volunteers would receive a 20% discount as well as credit/volunteer hours towards graduation. You can message us on Facebook or call the store (231-924-3930) to inquire about volunteering.

EARN COMMUNITY SERVICE HOURS by volunteering at the Thanksgiving Day Turkey Trot Race at Tamarac on Thursday, November 28, from 8 am to 10 am. If anyone may be interested in volunteering for some community service hours we need:

- Helping with the Kids Fun Run (inside track) – 2 volunteers needed
- Registration/distribution of shirts – 2 volunteers needed
- Snacks station – 2 volunteers needed
- Water station – out on race course (2 volunteers needed)
- Finish Line set up (3 volunteers needed)
- Morning set up for race (3 volunteers needed)
- Putting Signs out on course (1 volunteer needed)

Please contact Faye Fischer at 924-0528 if interested.
